NOW HIRING

Housekeeping – Part-Time, Sturgeon Bay Program Center

The housekeeping staff is responsible for the cleanliness of facilities and equipment for the Program Center. This position focuses on the cleanliness of facilities, in order to maintain a high level of member satisfaction. The ability to develop relationships with members and the staff team, to hear and understand their needs/concerns in an open and positive manner, with the end result of improving the YMCA and member experience is a key deliverable in this position.

KEY QUALIFICATIONS

The Housekeeping staff will have general housekeeping knowledge, with a desire to clean to meet (and hopefully exceed) member expectations. Housekeeping staff will work during the times that the facilities are closed, primarily after 9pm on weekdays, and 5pm on weekends. Various shifts are available

DETAILS

This Housekeeping position is based out of our Sturgeon Bay Program Center at 10-15 hours per week. Starting pay will be $12 per hour, with a FREE YMCA membership and program discounts. Position includes the need to be physically active, including walking, bending, reaching, pushing and lifting up to 50 pounds on a regular basis.
